Dear:

Fire, EMS, Government, HR, Public High School and College Representatives:

You are invited to join the Houston Fire Department at a “Free” Diversity Recruitment Workshop at the E.B. Cape Center, 4501 Leeland, Houston, TX 77023 on Friday, August 31, 2012 from 8:00-4:30. Your presenter will be Russell G. Hayden, CEO of Firefighter’s ABC’s.

We encourage any fire diversity related organizations to attend. The workshop is limited to twenty-five organizations with a limit of four persons per organization.

This workshop is not designed for candidates seeking a career in the fire service.

Interested persons can obtain flyer and registration via the FFABC’s web site. Please submit registration information to: accounts@firefightersabcs.com.

It is encouraged that you bring your laptop or I-pad for web site and school review portions of the workshop. You will need your own internet card to connect to the web site.

This is an eight-hour workshop and lunch is not provided. We suggest you bring your lunch.

If your fire department is not able to attend and/or you would like additional information, please contact Firefighter’s ABC’s or Russell Hayden directly at RussellHayden@FirefightersABCs.com.

Note: Please share this workshop within your network both in and outside the State of Texas.

Disclaimer: Neither the City of Houston nor the Houston Fire Department has directly or indirectly contributed to the development and presentation of Firefighter’s ABC’s program. Firefighter’s ABC’s is solely responsible for the content of this program.

We look forward to the possibility of your agency or organization attending.

Respectfully,

Lisa L. Campbell
Assistant Fire Chief-Human Resources Division
